Brethren Woods Paid Summer Staff, Volunteers, and Jr. Staff Needed for Summer 2020

Brethren Woods is looking for strong, solid Christians to serve in June and July during their 6-week summer camp program:

Paid summer staff: Open positions include male and female counselors, lifeguards, and kitchen assistants. Be sure to check out the Summer Staff webpage to review job descriptions, get more information about serving at camp, and apply online.

60 Volunteer staff members: Positions include deans (Bible study and worship leaders), health managers, camp counselors, support staff, kitchen and maintenance assistants, and activity leaders. Volunteers can serve for a day, half-week, or week-long session. Review job descriptions and apply online.

Jr. Staff Program: Designed for youth who are interested in learning leadership skills to be used at camp and in other settings, such as school, church, and the community. Jr. staff serve for two weeks during the summer-- one in a family group as a junior counselor and one in a support staff role (crafts assistant, nature assistant, maintenance assistant, support staff). Staff members are required to attend the spring training week-end (May 1-3). This training teaches leadership skills and introduces jr. staff to camp operations. Learn more and apply online here by March 15. Space is limited to 12 youth. Final decisions for these positions will be made by April 1.

For assistance or more information, email camp@brethrenwoods.org or call the camp office at 269-2741.
